

Space 267 is mysterious infinite energy universe, u will get whatever u like to achieve in your so called journey of life and death and beyond. It will not having any kind of rules, regulation and guidelines, and not restricted u for anything for example we provided u not the solution but the place where u only can imagine and believe that it does not exit like hell and haven, god & evil, truth & lie, existence and nonexistence etc. Suppose you want to meet anyone from your present past and future we will tell u the way to reach that form. Your only task is that to tell your story honestly without any prejudice because u are entering in infinite universe of infinite energy.

Thank and regards.
